Fundraising Prerequisite

The cost of the safari to you, as described above, is $4,100.00. In addition, there is a fundraising requirement of $1,000.00 minimum. You can either contribute the donation yourself or we encourage our guests to share Dazzle Africa projects with others in your community and inspire them to donate with you!

We will provide more information on our specific projects and also tools to assist with your fundraising, and hope you will enjoy the experience! Dazzle Africa's mission is to help the children and wildlife of Mfuwe, Zambia. We are not a travel company (though admittedly, we plan great safaris-this is our 7th group trip!); we are a philanthropic non-profit. Safari tourism is absolutely vital to the people and wildlife of the area where you will be going, and we are excited to have you contribute to our mission.

If your flight is delayed for any reason, please notify Stacy James or Ami Desai by text or call if you do not text. Stacy James, 702-332-1501 or Ami Desai, 303-520-0702

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Travel Documents Required

All travelers need a valid passport with at least 4 empty pages and a visa to enter Zambia. U.S. Citizens must have a valid passport that does not expire for at least 6 months after travel.

Travel Visa

Directions to acquire your travel Visa will be emailed to you by April 30th, 2017. Please complete the application by May 30th, 2017.

Travel Insurance

Travel insurance is required to participate on a Dazzle Africa Safari. Dazzle Africa is an affiliated member of an insurance broker, which proposes multiple travel insurance plans and allows you to pick the plan that best suits your needs. You do not pay more by going through Dazzle Africa.

You must purchase your insurance plan prior to your final payment if you are opting for a trip cancellation policy. Once your travel insurance plan has been purchased please email it to stacy@dazzle africa.org and print all necessary documents and bring them with you during your travels.

REQUIRED INSURANCE

To purchase your insurance, please go to: <https://www.squaremouth.com/21416>

Minimum Travel Insurance Required:

Emergency Medical Evacuation: $1,000,000.00

Primary Medical : $100,000

Depending on what you choose to cover in your insurance plan, the price will range from $50.00 dollars to $300.00 plus if you select cancellation insurance. Please ask for more direction if needed.

Vaccines

Travel doctors recommend a minimum of Tdap, Typhoid and Malaria pills. Please do your own research and make the best health decision for you by going to www.cdc.gov. Travel vaccine centers in your cities will also recommend what they think best for the areas you will be travelling. These recommendations are only for Zambia, if you are adding other countries to your visit, please make sure to look at the specific recommendations and requirements to enter and be safe in other areas of Africa.

Malaria

You will be visiting an area of Zambia with malaria. You will need to discuss with your doctor the best preventive medicine for you. Ways to prevent malaria include: Taking a prescription antimalarial drug, using insect repellent and using bed nets. All of the following antimalarial drugs are options for preventing malaria in Zambia: Atovaquone-proguanil, Doxycycline, or Mefloquine. For information that can help you and your doctor decide which of these drugs would be best for you, please see: <http://www.cdc.gov/malaria/travelers/drugs.html>

FLEXIBLE ITINERARY

Day 1 ~ Flatdogs Camp Thursday, November 2nd

After your international flight lands, meet your fellow travelers at the Lusaka airport for a short one-hour plane ride to Mfuwe.

Staff from the award-winning, comfortable and fun Flatdogs Camp will pick everyone up at the Mfuwe Airport and take us to the camp, arriving around 6pm. After receiving a short safety briefing, you will settle into your safari tent or chalet. At 7pm, we'll gather for cocktails and introductions and dinner will be served about 8pm.

Day 2 ~ Flatdogs Camp Friday, November 3rd

Greet your morning in Africa (yeah!) and smooth out your jet lag with a leisurely breakfast. A light breakfast of toast, cereal, yogurt, hard-boiled eggs, tea and coffee is available from 5:30am and a cooked breakfast from 7:30am. Once fortified, we'll provide a detailed welcome briefing full of information about the exciting days and nights ahead.
